 4  2  1

One of Pymble's finest

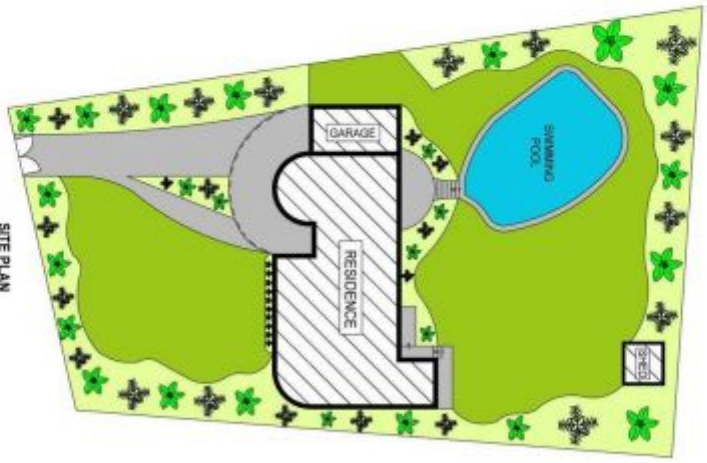

Privately and tranquilly positioned on an impressive 1055sqm level parcel in what is universally considered to be one of Pymble's finest streets, this exceptional residence is a home of rare distinction. A 1937 Art Deco masterpiece built over two levels in the revered P&O style, the interiors open to embrace the light of a coveted north-eastern aspect.

All bedrooms are welcoming doubles, with a palatially proportioned master suite that is flooded with sunshine. There is an eat-in gas kitchen, as well as classic bathrooms with separate baths and showers. The expansive manicured gardens include sweeping level lawns, mat
